“ Tommy was my cousin, we were the famous "Tom, Dick and Harry " cousins. Most people remember Tom as an adult, well, I've know him since childhood when we REALLY knew how to get in trouble. I watched Tom grow into the special human being that most people know him to be, one that loved his family above all. Sandy and Nicole, I'm sorry so sorry for your great loss. He will certainly be missed. I will remember him with a smile.

“ Sending my condolences to Tommy's family. He left you way too early and will no doubt leave a void. I have childhood memories of my cousin, and a couple encounters later in life. One thing for sure, he was truly a great man.
Rest in Peace Cousin Tommy

“ What a great person, I can tell you if you never have had a lengthy conversation with him that is something you missed out on. Regardless if it was good or tough conversation Tommy would always find the positive to any situation and try to keep you focused on that. Anytime we spoke if I was upset, confused or just need someone to confirm my thoughts. Tommy would have you laughing or smiling, mostly laughing. Tommy you will be missed by all. Love you brother, Gerry

“ My husband Scott Calhoun was in College at WSU in Pullman, Washington with Tom for a time. They became good friends. Tom then went into the Navy, and Scott and I got married a year or so later. Tom came for a visit to Lewiston, Idaho. Tom was always fun and made us laugh. As time went on Scott and Tom kept in touch through the years with yearly phone calls and Christmas cards. We saw Nicole grow-up (and grandkids) over the years through all the pictures he and Sandi would send us. Scott got the opportunity through work to fly back East for a visit with Tom, Sandi and Nicole a few years ago. Tom was a great guy and friend. We send our love to you all. We will cherish our memories.

“ Did you know that Tom was a cover model? When he was about eight years old, his parents took Tom and his little brother Billy to see the landmarks in New York City. A photographer spotted them, and the boys made the cover of Parade Magazine. Tom was a good man. He brought caring and laughter into our world. God commanded us to "love one another." Tom loved and was loved every moment of his life. Well done, dear one, well done.
